

Statement:

Final year PhD student specialized in experimental geomechanics, conventional and laser ultrasonics, geomechanical modelling & simulation, data analytics, team building, volunteering, engineering research project supervision and teaching activity. I am keen to become part of industries and research institutions on digital transformation of near-surface geotechnical engineering, rock-physics application on hard rocks, automatization of petrophysical workflow and subsurface hydrogen storage, monitoring, and utilization platform.